

STAFF AND FACULTY OF SFCA ASSOCIATION UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, MERCED

ADVOCACY

SFCA is an affinity space that continually advocates for staff and faculty of color. For SFCA advocacy means meeting with the Chancellor and senior leadership regularly to discuss concerns staff and faculty of color are facing

HEALING

SFCA creates a safe space for folks who identify within the community where they can build relationships through resiliency and healing. SFCA hosts monthly sessions and fundraisers to support our growing population

GROWTH

SFCA is committed to providing resources for professional development for staff and faculty by inviting leaders of color across all fields to present and share their stories

Getting Involved!

Visit our website to find up-to-date information on semester meetings and special events.

Follow us on Facebook:
facebook.com/sfcaatucm

Or email us at:
sfca@ucmerced.edu

The Staff and Faculty of Color Association at UC Merced provides opportunities for faculty and staff to develop a sense of community and strengthen the professional and social networks. The goal of the group is to empower staff and faculty to engage in conversation about campus climate issues and to foster professional development.